Note: Certification 111-2014-2015 of the Governing Board defines a face-to-face course as: "Course in which 75% or more of instruction hours require the physical presence of students and the professor in the classroom." The remaining 25% may be covered using different educational strategies, among which are: visits related to the course, field experiences, excursions, and online activities, among others. It is the responsibility of the professor to provide evidence of all the activities with attendance sheets and assessment of these activities.

REASONABLE MODIFICATION (Accommodation)

Students who receive reasonable modification (accommodation) benefits and / or receive Vocational Rehabilitation services should contact the professor at the beginning of the semester to coordinate the modification (accommodation) and necessary equipment according to the recommendations of the OSEI UPRA Coordinator. To process the application, you can access the link http://docs.upra.edu/osei/Procesamiento_de_Servicios-OSEI.pdf. The request for reasonable accommodation does not exempt the student from complying with the academic requirements of the course or program.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

The University of Puerto Rico promotes the highest standards of academic and scientific integrity. Article 6.2 of the UPR Students General Bylaws (Board of Trustees Certification 13, 2009-2010) states that academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to: fraudulent actions; obtaining grades or academic degrees by false or fraudulent simulations; copying the whole or part of the academic work of another person; plagiarizing totally or partially the work of another person; copying all or part of another person answers to the questions of an oral or written exam by taking or getting someone else to take the exam on his/her behalf, as well as enabling and facilitating another person to perform the aforementioned behavior. Any of these behaviors will be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the disciplinary procedure laid down in the UPR Students General Bylaws.

- The Rules and Regulation Manual of the UPR lists plagiarism in section 3.52 as one of several punishable behaviors.

Sección 35.2 - Conducta sujeta a acciones disciplinarias

Sección 35.2.3 - Falta de integridad intelectual, manifestada en forma de plagio o fraude.

Artículo 6.2- Conducta Estudiantil sujeta a sanciones disciplinarias

Note: Disciplinary actions may be given (suspension, reputation damaged, zero in class)

Netiquette

Students taking online courses should follow the universal Netiquette guidelines below:

-Communicating with your instructor:

- DO NOT TYPE IN ALL CAPS, PLEASE. Typing a text all caps is inappropriate because it is perceived as yelling.
- Be pro-active. Exhaust all avenues before asking a question. For instance, if you need to know the professor's office hours, check the banner on the Moodle page or the course guidelines. Questions about the grade breakdown? Check out the syllabus under General Information in Moodle. Need to know the due dates for assignments? You will find them in the chronogram. If you still have a question, write to your professor.
- Proofread your assignments before submitting to your instructor. Always use proper spelling, grammar, capitalization, and punctuation.
- Read first. Before responding to an email, chat, or forum, make sure you read the previous discussions first. You need to know what other people have answered or asked so you do not duplicate efforts, hindering the class from moving forward to subsequent topics.
- Submit files in the format assigned by your instructor. When submitting any assignment, always follow your instructor's rules, e.g. format and content. Ignoring these instructions is bad netiquette and could lead to losing points on the assignment.

- Conduct yourself professionally on email and while online. A common netiquette error is to treat e-correspondence with faculty and staff as an ongoing chat among friends.

-Communicating with Fellow Students:

- Avoid sarcasm, harmful words or phrases, obscene language. Sarcasm can lead to misguided arguments online. Therefore, be careful with jokes, hurtful words, or obscene language, that could come across as distasteful or rude.
- Respect people's opinions. If you want to express your disagreement with an argument presented by another student, do so respectfully. Begin your argument with phrases like: "I do not agree with your opinion because..." or "Your point is understood, however...."
- Be precise when answering questions asked by your classmates. When replying to a fellow student's question about assignment instructions or due dates, please be 100% certain of your answer. Do not guess; do not misinform.
- Do not abuse the chat box. Please, use the chat box for comments or questions relevant to the course. Chat boxes are for sharing ideas but can distract when loaded with irrelevant comments.
- Conduct yourself professionally on email and while online. A common netiquette error is to treat e-correspondence with faculty and staff as an ongoing chat among friends.
- Be kind and show empathy. Because the Internet has some level of anonymity, some people tend to behave rudely. Make a point to always be respectful- even if you disagree. You can debate any subject without hurting other people.
- Think before you type. "Whether or not privacy settings are in place, the internet has a tendency to house things forever, and what you say privately can easily become public," advises etiquette expert Devoreaux Walton.
